

"Source: Report of the Canadian Committee on Corrections -- Toward Unity:
Criminal Justice and Corrections, March 31, 1969,
Department of Justice Canada. Reproduced with the permission of the Minister of Public Works and Government Services Canada, 2009."

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Chapter 1. PROCEDURES AND BACKGROUND.....	1
Committee meetings. Visits. Interviews. Conferences. Briefs. Special studies. Questionnaire. Panel of Consultants. Special assignments. Historical perspective. Acknowledgements.
Chapter 2. BASIC PRINCIPLES AND PURPOSES OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE....	11
Investigation of offences. Procuring the attendance of a suspect in court. Representation of a suspect. The judicial function. Conviction. Sentencing. Correctional services.
Chapter 3. THE INCIDENCE OF CRIME IN CANADA.....	21
Chapter 4. TRENDS AND DEVELOPMENTS IN CANADIAN CORRECTIONS.....	31
Public interest and participation. Leadership in correctional planning. Inter-disciplinary cooperation. Research and statistics. Correctional legislation. Staff development. Police. The courts. Probation. Prisons. Parole. After-care. Conclusion.
Chapter 5. THE INVESTIGATION OF OFFENCES AND POLICE POWERS....	39
Role of the police in a democratic society. The police and the public. Police-community relations. Police training. The police and the offender. Police discretion not to invoke the criminal process. The prevention of crime. Police powers and the investigation of offences. A survey of police powers in Canada. Police power to question. Interrogation to obtain information. Admissibility of confessions obtained by police questioning. Interrogation before a judicial officer. Power to arrest. Detention on suspicion. Whether a person should be required to identify himself. Universal fingerprinting. Entry without warrant to prevent crime or to effect arrest. Use of firearms in prevention of flight to avoid arrest. The power to search. Power to search the person as an incident of arrest. Search of premises as an incident of arrest. Search of premises under a search warrant. Extraordinary powers of search. Writs of assistance. Indirect investigation of offences through administrative tribunals. Admissibility of evidence obtained by illegal means. Canadian and English rule. American exclusionary rule respecting evidence illegally obtained. Scots law respecting the admissibility of evidence illegally obtained. Conclusions and recommendations. Police intelligence. In-

	PAGE
formers and undercover agents. Official instigation of crime. Defence of entrapment in the United States. Wiretapping and electronic surveillance. Canadian legislation. Use and control of wiretapping and electronic surveillance by law enforcement officers. Judicial or ministerial control of wiretapping and electronic surveillance. Views and conclusions respecting wiretapping and electronic surveillance. Admissibility of conversations obtained through wiretapping and electronic surveillance. Suppression of invasions of privacy for criminal purposes. General conclusions with respect to police powers.
Chapter 6. ARREST..... Increased use of summons as an alternative to arrest without warrant. Increased use of summons as an alternative to arrest under warrant. Police power to summon. Penalty for failure to obey a summons. The Identification of Criminals Act.	91
Chapter 7. BAIL..... Use of bail to reduce pre-trial detention. Bail, corrections and human rights. Present law and practice in Canada with respect to bail. Power to admit to bail. Conditions upon which accused may be admitted to bail. The practice of requiring security in advance. Principles which should govern pre-trial release. Empowering police to release pending trial. Measures supplementary to bail system. Professional bondsmen. Bail on appeal to the court of appeal and to the Supreme Court of Canada. Right to appeal. Appeal to court of appeal from conviction for an indictable offence. Appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada by a person convicted of an indictable offence whose conviction has been affirmed by the court of appeal. Appeals to the court of appeal and to the Supreme Court of Canada in summary conviction offences. Appeals under Section 37 of the Juvenile Delinquents Act. Appeals to the court of appeal from sentences passed by the trial court upon conviction for an indictable offence. Jurisdiction and procedure as to bail on appeal. Jurisdiction to grant bail on appeal to the court of appeal and the Supreme Court of Canada. Absence of jurisdiction under the present law to admit to bail, where leave to appeal is necessary, prior to granting of leave to appeal. Jurisdiction to grant bail on appeal to the court of appeal against sentence. Procedure with respect to admitting to bail pending appeal. Bail pending appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada. Principles which should govern bail on appeal. Legal aid. Bail on appeal to summary conviction appeal court. Doubt as to power to admit to bail pending appeal from sentence only.	99
Chapter 8. REPRESENTATION OF THE ACCUSED..... Legal representation at trial and corrections. Legal representation as a human right. Legal representation before trial. Right to counsel while in police custody. Police attitudes. Right in other jurisdictions. Right to counsel in Scotland. Judges' rules in England. The United States. Right to counsel in continental European systems. Notification of right to counsel. Recommendations with respect to the right of an arrested person to consult counsel. Function of counsel when consulted by a person in police custody. Effect on law enforcement. Legal aid at the police station. Legal representation on appeal. Legal aid in Canada at the present time. Public defender system. Recommendations with respect to legal aid. Annex A. Instructions to members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Force with respect to advising prisoners of their right to counsel.	131

	PAGE
Annex B. Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1887. 50 & 51 Victoria, Chapter 35. Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Act, 1955, Chapter 48.
Annex C. Illinois Criminal Law and Procedure.
Chapter 9. THE CRIMINAL COURT.....	165
The judge. The court: its location and construction. The ancillary services. Conclusion.
Chapter 10. USE AND PROTECTION OF INFORMATION ACQUIRED THROUGH A CONFIDENTIAL RELATIONSHIP.....	175
Rights and duties of citizens generally. Privilege arising from particular relationships. State privilege. Statements without prejudice. Confidentiality with respect to corrections. Pre-disposition. Post-disposition. Supervision of probation or parole conditions. Treatment under probation, parole or after-care. Particular problems. The use of pre-sentence report in subsequent criminal or civil proceedings. The use of agency or hospital records as evidence in subsequent civil or criminal proceedings. The use by law enforcement agencies of agency or hospital records as sources of information. The liability of individuals to appear as witnesses or produce documents in court under sub-poena. Summary of views and conclusions.
Chapter 11. SENTENCING.....	185
Introduction. Historical positions on sentencing. Punishment. Penitence. Correction. Contemporary positions on sentencing. Contemporary Canadian law. The Committee's approach. Dangerous offenders. Necessity for imprisonment. Change of approach. Disparity of sentences. Necessity for reasons. Proposed sentencing scheme. The scheme in principle. General principle. Sentences not involving confinement. Absolute discharge with or without conditions. Probation. Fines. Suspended sentence. Restitution or reparation to the victims of crime. Conviction and confinement. Intermittent sentences. Full confinement. Indefinite or indeterminate sentences. Disposition of outstanding charges. Corporal punishment. The mechanics of sentencing. Guides to sentencing. Pre-disposition reports. Reasons for sentence. The sentencing authority. Training and education. Sabbatical leaves. Courts of criminal appeal. Non-judicial sentencing.
Chapter 12. MENTALLY DISORDERED PERSONS UNDER THE CRIMINAL LAW.....	219
The New Hampshire rule. Irresistible impulse doctrine. Durham rule. American Law Institute Model Penal Code. Rule recommended by Gowers Commission. Currens rule. Freeman rule. Psychiatric services to the courts. Fitness to stand trial. Detention under warrant of the lieutenant-governor. Hospital permits. Mentally disordered persons in correctional institutions.
Chapter 13. THE DANGEROUS OFFENDER.....	241
Habitual criminals. Failure of habitual offender legislation in England. Habitual offender laws in the United States. Application of the present habitual offender legislation in Canada. Dangerous sexual offender legislation. Conclusions and recommendations of the Committee. Proposed dangerous offender legislation. The type of sentence to be imposed upon a person found to be a dangerous offender. Safeguards: the right to review. Diagnostic, custodial and treatment facilities. Research. The persistent non-dangerous offender. Organized crime: professional criminals. Annex. Offences not against the person. Offences against the person.

	PAGE
Chapter 14. PURPOSES AND ORGANIZATION OF THE ADULT CORRECTIONAL SERVICES.....	273
Definition. The present situation: aims and purposes. The present situation: key services. Adult detention. Probation. Prisons. Parole. After-care. Correctional principles. Federal-provincial responsibility. A coordinating and leadership role. Comprehensive legislation. Administrative organization.
Chapter 15. PRE-TRIAL, REMAND AND SHORT-TERM DETENTION CENTRES.....	287
Definitions. The importance of the jail. Situation in Canada. Recommended detention centre system. Functions of area detention centres. Location of area detention centres. Design. Program. Staffing.
Chapter 16. PROBATION.....	293
Definition. Advantages of probation. Utilization and success of probation in Canada. Eligibility for probation. Procedures in granting probation. Conditions attached to a probation order. Mandatory provisions. Discretionary provisions. Failure to abide by conditions of a probation order. Transfer of supervision. New probation techniques and facilities. Probation hostels. Use of volunteers. Attendance centres. Group work methods. Staff requirements. National development of probation.
Chapter 17. PRISONS.....	307
Definition. Purposes. Situation in Canada. Excessive use of prisons in Canada. Cost of prisons. The process of classification. Custodial classification. Inmate sub-culture. Re-education: treatment and training. Prison labour and prison pay. Role and working relationship of staff. Community involvement. Corporal punishment. Remission. Location, design and size.
Chapter 18. PAROLE AND STATUTORY CONDITIONAL RELEASE.....	329
Definitions. Purpose and value of parole. Development of parole in Canada. Utilization and success of parole in Canada. Federal parole legislation. Federal-provincial responsibility in parole. The national parole system. Structure of the National Parole Board. National Parole Board procedures. Eligibility. Parole conditions. Suspension. Forfeiture and revocation. Termination and discharge of the parolee from his sentence. Statutory conditional release. Supervision. Administrative procedures. Annex A. Parole Act Regulations Made under the Parole Act Annex B. Ticket of Leave Act
Chapter 19. GRADUAL RELEASE AND AFTER-CARE.....	369
Definition. Changing concepts. Value of after-care. Steps leading towards release. Services in Canada.
Chapter 20. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION AND THE ROLE OF THE VOLUNTARY AGENCY.....	373
Citizen participation and corrections. The voluntary agencies. The role of the voluntary agencies. Public education. Citizen involvement. Social action. Direct service. The court hearing. Prison services. Parole supervision. Voluntary after-care. Work with the offender's family.

	PAGE
Living accomodation. The voluntary agencies and the public correctional services. A partnership. Financing the voluntary agencies. Selection of voluntary agencies to perform specific tasks. New roles for the voluntary agencies.
Chapter 21. THE YOUNG ADULT OFFENDER.....	383
Definition. Importance of the young adult group. Court jurisdiction. Special legislative provisions. Special correctional services. Juveniles in institutions for adults.
Chapter 22. THE WOMAN OFFENDER.....	389
Differences in male and female criminality. Implications for treatment. Theft and fraud. Offences without a direct victim. Offences related to childbirth and maternity. Differences in sentencing practices in relation to women and men offenders. Correctional services for the woman offender. Community services. Prison services. Continuing jurisdictional responsibility. A leadership role. Indian and Métis women offenders.
Annex. Rates of charges per 100,000 population over 16 and ratio of male to female rates for specific offences in Canada in 1966.
Chapter 23. SIGNIFICANCE OF CRIMINAL RECORDS AND RECOGNITION OF REHABILITATION.....	407
Criminal records. Availability. Recognition of rehabilitation. Summary conviction offences. Indictable offences. Employment. Provincial jurisdiction. International travel and immigration.
Chapter 24. THE DEVELOPMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES IN THE FIELD OF CORRECTIONS.....	413
The police. A sense of accomplishment. Recruitment. Training. Working conditions. Lawyers. Correctional services personnel. Training for what? Where to begin. Who should be responsible for recruitment and training. Different settings. Recruitment. Training—administrative staff. Training—professionally-trained staff. Training—staff who are not professionally-trained. Shortage of professional staff. Role of the Canadian government.
Chapter 25. RESEARCH, PLANNING AND ADVISORY COMMITTEES.....	423
Need for organized planning. Need for research. Need for Canadian research. Scope of criminological research. Some implications of criminological research. Where responsibility lies. Financing. Development of research staff. Statistics. Records. Advisory committees. At the government level. At the departmental level. Within the provinces.
Appendices
Appendix A. Visits by Members of the Committee.....	433
Appendix B. Conferences Attended by One or More Members of the Committee.....	437
Appendix C. Briefs and Submissions Received by the Committee.....	439
Appendix D. Special Studies Undertaken at the Request of the Committee.....	443
Appendix E. Evaluation of Design for Maximum Security Prisons Developed by the Canadian Penitentiary Service.....	445
Appendix F. Statistics of Crime and Corrections.....	469
Separate Statement by Mrs. McArton.....	489

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE	PAGE
1. Selected Offences Known to the Police in Canada and the United States, 1966. Rates per 100,000 Population.....	26
2. Persons Convicted of Indictable Offences, Canada, 1950 and 1966. Rate per 100,000 Population, 16 Years and Older.....	29
3. Detainees under Habitual Offender Legislation Who Have Been Convicted of One or More Serious Offences against the Person, by Number of such Convictions and whether the Habitual Offender Legislation Was Invoked on the Occasion of One of these Convictions.....	251
4. Sentences of Preventive Detention on the 80 Persons Found to Be Habitual Offenders, by Place.....	252
5. Sentences of Preventive Detention on the 80 Persons Found to Be Habitual Offenders, by Province.....	253
6. Place where Accused Were Found to Be Dangerous Sexual Offenders.....	256
7. Province where Accused Were Found to Be Dangerous Sexual Offenders.....	256
8. Number of Jails in Canada, by Jurisdiction.....	288
9. Number of Prisoners Held in Canadian Jails as of March 31, 1967.....	289
10. Number of Adults Placed on Probation in Canada, by Province and Territory, 1962-1966.....	296
11. Number of Adults Placed on Probation in Canada by Annual Totals, 1962-1966.....	297
12. Adults in Custody in Federal Penitentiaries and Provincial Prisons in Canada as of March 31, 1950-1966 and Rate per 100,000 Population.....	310
13. Use of Corporal Punishment in Canadian Penitentiaries as a Disciplinary Measure.....	323
14. Parole Applications and Paroles Granted by the National Parole Board, by Penitentiaries or Provincial Institutions, 1959-1967.....	334
15. Number of Inmates Who Were Granted Parole and Those Who Were Released on Expiration of Sentence: Success and Relapse (5-Year Follow-Up).....	336
16. Supervision of National Parolees by Type of Agency 1959-1967.....	352
17. Number of Young Adults Convicted of Indictable Offences by Age Group and Sex in Canada 1957-1966.....	384
18. Rates of Conviction for Indictable Offences per 100,000 Population of Each Age Group by Sex 1957-1966.....	385
19. Population Movement In and Out of Canadian Prisons for Women, 1967-1968..	399
20. Number of Indian and Métis Women in Selected Prisons for Women in Canada for certain Periods in 1965 or 1966.....	404
21. Rates of Charges per 100,000 Population over 16 and Ratio of Male to Female Rates for Specific Offences in Canada in 1966.....	405
F-1. Convictions by Type of Offence. Rates per 100,000 Population 16 Years and Older, Canada 1901-1966.....	470
F-2. Summary Convictions for Traffic Offences 1901-1966. Rate per 100,000 Population and Percentage of Total Convictions.....	470
F-3. Persons Convicted of Indictable Offences. Rate per 100,000 Population, by Sex 1950-1966.....	472
F-4. Persons Convicted of Indictable Offences by Age and Sex, 1950 and 1966. Rate per 100,000 Population.....	474
F-5. Male Crime Rate Index by Class of Offence 1950-1966.....	476

TABLE	PAGE
F-6. Female Crime Rate Index by Class of Offence 1950-1966.....	477
F-7. Persons Convicted of Indictable Offences by Sex for Selected Age Groups, 1966. Rate per 100,000 Population.....	477
F-8. Persons in Custody in Correctional Institutions in Canada as of March 31, 1950-1966. Rate per 100,000 Population.....	488

LIST OF FIGURES

FIGURE
1. Rates of Conviction per 100,000 Population by Type of Offence, Canada, 1901-1966.....	24
2. Percentage of Convictions by Type of Offence, Canada, 1901-1966.....	25
3. Persons Convicted of Indictable Offences. Rate per 100,000 Population by Sex, Canada, 1950-1966.....	27
4. Interval in Years between only serious Offence against a Person and Detention as Habitual Offender.....	249
5. Distribution of Length of Interval between only serious Offence and Detention as Habitual Offender (Adjusted for Sentence Served for Single serious Offence.)	250
F-1. Convictions for Indictable Offences, Canada, 1937-1966.....	471
F-2. Crime Rate Index per 100,000 Population of each Age Group, Canada, 1950-1966.....	473
F-3. Persons Convicted by Class of Indictable Offence. Rate per 100,000 Population, 1950-1966.....	475
F-4. Persons Convicted of Indictable Offences—Percentage Distribution of Court Sentences, Canada, 1950-1966.....	480
F-5. Persons Convicted of Theft—Percentage Distribution of Court Sentences, Canada, 1950-1966.....	481
F-6. Persons Convicted of Breaking and Entering—Percentage Distribution of Court Sentences, Canada, 1950-1966.....	482
F-7. Persons Convicted of Robbery and Extortion—Percentage Distribution of Court Sentences, Canada, 1950-1966.....	483
F-8. Persons Convicted of Manslaughter—Percentage Distribution of Court Sentences, Canada, 1950-1966.....	484
F-9. Persons Convicted of Rape—Percentage Distribution of Court Sentences, Canada, 1950-1966.....	485
F-10. Rate per 100,000 Population in Correctional Institutions in Canada, by Type of Institution, as of March 31, 1950-1966.....	487