

Table of Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| INTRODUCTION | 1 |
| FIRST PART: Description of the Reform | 3 |
| CHAPTER I — Basis and Structure of the Reform | 5 |
| I. Protecting the integrity of the person | 6 |
| II. Protecting children and special groups | 7 |
| III. Safeguarding public decency | 7 |
| CHAPTER II — Formulation of the Reform | 9 |
| I. Changes in the general structure of the Code | 9 |
| II. Redefinition of offences | 12 |
| A. Rape and indecent assault | 12 |
| B. Immunity of spouses | 15 |
| C. Protection of minors, the feeble-minded and special groups of persons | 17 |
| (1) Minors | 19 |
| (2) Mentally handicapped persons | 23 |
| (3) Other persons in relation of dependency | 24 |
| D. Incest | 25 |
| E. Buggery, bestiality and acts of gross indecency | 30 |
| F. Offences tending to corrupt morals and disorderly conduct | 31 |
| (1) Exhibitionism | 31 |
| (2) Public nudity | 32 |
| (3) Indecent exhibitions | 32 |
| (4) Trespassing at night | 33 |
| G. Soliciting | 33 |
| CHAPTER III — Rules Supplemental to the Formulation of Offences | 35 |
| A. Examination of the victim and publicity | 35 |
| B. Vagrancy | 37 |
| RECOMMENDATIONS | 39 |
| SECOND PART: Texts and Commentary on the Reform | 47 |