

“Source: Administrative Law, Independent Administrative Agencies, Working Paper 25, 1980.
Department of Justice Canada.
Reproduced with the permission of the Minister of Public Works and Government Services Canada, 2007.”

Table of Contents

Foreword	1
Introduction: Independent Administrative Agencies — Issues and Values	7
Chapter One: The Historical Perspective	17
A. The Traditional Legal Context	18
B. The Expansion of Government	20
C. World War I — Growth of Government Controls	24
D. The Inter-War Period	26
E. World War II and Its Aftermath	28
Chapter Two: Independent Agencies and the Administrative Process	33
A. The Role of Independent Agencies in Government	34
B. Classification of Agencies	37
1. Economic Agencies	38
2. Social Agencies	40
C. The Administrative Process	43
D. Conclusion	47
Chapter Three: The Legislative Framework and the Role of Parliament	49
A. Necessary Reforms Concerning Legislation ...	50
1. Legislative Planning	50

2. Legislative Drafting	51
3. Improving Federal Statute Books	52
4. Problems Inherent in Broad Statutory Mandates	54
5. Agency Status as a Court of Record	56
6. Appropriate Blends of Functions, Powers and Procedures	57
7. Investigative Powers, Enforcement and Sanctions	58
8. Need for a Monitoring Body	59
9. Statutory Interpretation: A Public Law Perspective	60
B. Retaining Parliamentary Supremacy over Agency Legislation	61
1. Parliament's Role Generally	61
2. Scrutiny of Delegated Legislation	64
Chapter Four: Executive Controls over Agencies	73
A. Ministerial Control Versus Independence	74
B. Classification of Agencies by Ministerial Control Mechanisms	76
C. Extending Controls over Regulatory Agencies .	78
D. Methods of Political Control	80
E. Control over Delegated Legislation	83
F. Directive Power	84
G. Ministerial Approval	86
H. Political Review of Administrative Action	87
I. Informal Political Controls	89
J. Occasional Need for Unimpeded Political Initiatives	91

Chapter Five: Public Interest Representation and Rule-making	95
A. Public Interest Representation	96
1. Agency Proceedings as a Political Process	96
2. Ascertaining Relevant Interests	98
3. Notice	101
4. Standing	103
5. Access to Agency Law and Information ..	103
6. Ensuring Support for Constituent Interests	105
7. Encouraging Articulation of All Relevant Interests	110
8. Governmental Representation of Interests	111
9. The Need for Procedural Innovation	113
B. Agency Rule-making	114
Chapter Six: Guidelines for Administrative Procedure	119
A. Administrative Hearings — Degree of Participation Required	121
B. Treatment of Evidence	123
C. The Purposes Hearings Serve	124
D. When Should Hearings Be Held?	124
E. Shaping Procedure: Minimizing Costs of Participation	126
F. The Use and Allocation of Powers Relating to Procedure	131
1. Keeping Control over Proceedings	131
2. Delegation of Power to Hold Hearings	132
G. The Role of Agency Advisory Staff at Hearings	134
H. Disclosure of Information and Confidentiality	136

I. Reasons for Decision	137
J. Accessibility	138
K. Need for Administrative Procedure Legislation	140
 Chapter Seven: Administrative Agencies and the Courts	 143
A. Various Mechanisms for Review of Administrative Action	143
B. Centralized Review in Federal Court	144
C. Principles of Natural Justice	145
D. Duty of Fairness	146
E. Limits of Judicial Review	148
F. Statutory Right of Appeal	150
G. Application for Judicial Review	150
H. Extent of Court Jurisdiction	151
I. Grounds of Review	151
J. Forms of Relief	152
K. Alternatives to Present System of Judicial Review	153
L. Institutional Reforms Needed	156
 Chapter Eight: Professional Standards	 159
A. Appointment of Agency Members	160
B. Provisions for Tenure	163
C. Performance Evaluation	164
D. Professionalism	166
E. Bias and Conflict of Interest	167
F. Problems of Collegial Agencies	168
G. Training Programs	170

Chapter Nine: New Institutional Controls over Administration	173
A. Freedom of Information Legislation	174
B. Creation of an Ombudsman	176
C. The Use of Administrative Appellate Bodies ..	178
D. Review by a Separate Administrative Court System	180
E. Need for Administrative Law Advisory Body	182
1. Legislative Planning and Drafting	182
2. Monitoring Administrative Procedures	183
3. Consultations on Appointments to Independent Agencies	184
4. Administrative Council Proposal	184
F. Conclusion	186
Summary of Recommendations	187
Endnotes	201